

TURKEY STILL IN CIVIL CONFLICT

MUTINY IS QUIET FOR BRIEF PERIOD

But Uprisings Are Reported Over Practically All of Albania

FIFTY WERE KILLED IN YESTERDAY'S RIOTING

New Grand Vizier No Better Liked Than Old One; Danger From Bulgaria

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 14.—(By Santiros Moshpelus, staff correspondent of the United Press, via Philippopolis, Bulgaria)—More than fifty persons have been slain since the present trouble began, and a reactionary uprising is reported today in Aleh, Uskub, Dibra, in fact practically throughout Albania.

Comparative quiet reigns here, the new minister of war having finally persuaded the mutinous troops to return to the barracks, but the situation is none the less serious for the temporary lull in the storm and hostilities are but deferred for a short time. The danger of fresh trouble developed today when the military expressed its opposition to Tewfik Pasha, the grand vizier who succeeded Hilmi Pasha. As long as this opposition remains there will be no possibility of establishing a stable government.

The real ruler of Turkey today is the sultan who is working through the League of Mohammed. He is rapidly assuming his old grasp of affairs and it is feared that if he is ever completely restored to power he will wreak terrible vengeance.

The young Turks have sworn to kill the sultan if he swings too far in his opposition. Wild rumors are on the streets that the sultan has already been murdered, but these are discredited. It is expected a new cabinet will be announced within a few hours. Besides Ahmed Pasha, the new Minister of War, the only appointment confirmed is that of Rifaat Pasha, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

RECLAMATION PROJECT FOR IMPERIAL VALLEY

MANS INHUMANITY TOWARDS WOMAN

Girl With Babe in Arms to Go to Prison for Slaying Her Betrayer

NEW YORK, April 14.—The spectacle of a young woman, hardly more than a girl, with a six months baby in her arms, on trial for her life, was presented at Judge Blanchard's court today when Sarah Koten appeared to answer for killing Dr. Samuel Austin.

The attorneys for the defense announced that they would not attempt to deny that their client killed Austin. They base the defense on the plea of emotional insanity, and this plea will be founded on the assertion that the girl was driven mad by Austin's betrayal of her.

After a brief consultation between the counsel for the defense, they withdrew the plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the first degree. The unfortunate girl was remanded to the custody of the sheriff for sentence which will be passed on Tuesday. The penalty for this charge is imprisonment of one to twenty years.

District Attorney Jerome in an affidavit said that although he was willing to accept the girl's plea, the crime was deliberate and cold blooded. He says she plotted the killing some time before the crime. The girl, holding the baby, listened impassively.

Friends Say Nippon Pastor Is Americanized and Refined

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The reported engagement of Miss Kate Goodman to Rev. Joseph Inazawa, pastor of the Japanese Presbyterian Mission of Los Angeles, is approved by her friends according to Mrs. E. A. Struge of this city. Mrs. Struge said:

"I see no reason for any opposition to such a marriage. Both are old enough to know what they are doing. Inazawa is Americanized, refined and educated. It is different from the marriage of a white girl with a Japanese laborer. Inazawa has had pastorate at Watsonville, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Their tastes are congenial, and their life work is the same."

Miss Goodman reached Los Angeles last night, and is now at Moneta near Los Angeles.

RECOMMENDS DENIAL OF PETITION TO FILL BALBOA ISLAND TRACT

Captain Fries Will ask War Department to Keep Harbor Channel 1500 feet Wide—Remonstrance Filed

The delegation that went before much encouraged with the result of Captain Amos Fries at the United States engineer's office in Los Angeles yesterday for the purpose of Beach Chamber of Commerce, saying protesting against the petition of the Newport Land Co. for permission to establish a bulkhead and to dredge of the channel to less than 1500 feet along the Newport Bay channel adjoining Balboa Island, were proposed to be made, stated that his recommendation to the war department at Washington, D. C., would be against granting the Newport Land Company's petition for making the fill as proposed by the company's map, inasmuch as the proposed fill would narrow the channel to 600 feet.

Attorney Clyde Bishop, who was present yesterday as president of the Orange County Harbor Association, stated that the next move in the matter is up to the people of Orange county.

"We must see to it that our representatives at Washington understand our position in this matter and that they realize the vast importance of it to us, that they may back up in every way possible the recommendation of Captain Fries that the petition be not granted for the fill that would narrow that channel to less than 1500 feet."

Those present yesterday at the hearing in Los Angeles were Captain Fries and Lieutenants Ernburg and Leeds of the U. S. Engineers Corps, Supervisor G. W. Angle, W. W. Wilson and Lew H. Wallace, president and secretary of the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce, City Trustee Fred Beckwith, John King and A. A. Lester of Newport Beach, and Clyde Bishop of Santa Ana, president of the Orange County Harbor Association.

The remonstrance and objections presented in writing by the delegation is as follows:

"To Jacob M. Dickenson, Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.

"Remonstrance and Objections.

"In re application of the Newport Land Company, per W. S. Collins, president thereof, for permission to dredge and fill in portions of Newport Bay adjoining Balboa Island, a natural island existing in said bay:

"We, the undersigned, do hereby object and remonstrate against the approval of the bulkhead lines proposed by the map now on file in the office of Amos Fries, United States Engineer, in the city of Los Angeles, upon the following grounds and the following reasons, to-wit:

"First. That if the petitioners, to-wit: The Newport Land Company, are permitted to establish the bulkhead lines as proposed by said map, and it will be necessary to establish said bulkheads in order to fill in behind the same by the proposed dredging, then by the establishment of said bulkheads, it will narrow the main channel of Newport Bay at a distance of about one mile inland from the mouth or inlet thereof for a distance of about eighty rods in length to a width of less than 600 feet. That that portion of Newport Bay lying between Balboa Island and the main land south thereof in its natural condition is about 1800 feet in width; that to reduce the width of the main channel of Newport Bay to a width of less than 1500 feet, will leave the channel so narrow as to be wholly inadequate for navigation purposes and will destroy the usefulness of the same as a haven and harbor.

"Second. For the further reason, and upon the further ground: That if the said Newport Land Company is permitted to establish said bulkheads and fill behind the same, a large portion of the land which is proposed to be filled being now covered by the tidal waters of said Newport Bay; if the same be filled and said tidal waters excluded therefrom, will prevent the accumulation of tide waters therein and thereon, and will reduce the quantity of tide waters that come and go by the tide in and out of said Newport Bay by each of the tides that flows therein and will thus reduce the tidal prism or basin of said Newport Bay, and will thus cause an accumulation of sand upon the bar at the mouth or inlet thereof, and the navigability of said Newport Bay will thereby become lessened and will destroy its future usefulness for commercial and navigation purposes."

The above is signed as follows:

"George W. Angle, member of Board of Supervisors, Orange county, California, being the supervisor of said county in whose supervisorial district Newport Bay exists.

"George W. Moore, member of Board of Supervisors, Orange county, California.

"Clyde Bishop, president of Orange County Harbor Association.

"W. W. Wilson, president Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce.

"Lew H. Wallace, secretary Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce.

"C. A. Barton, president Board of Trustees, City of Newport Beach.

FOR A MOTHERS' DAY

The Mothers' Day movement started by Mrs. Baker P. Lee, of Los Angeles, is one of those propositions that appeals with such irresistible force to everyone having a spark of human sympathy that it seems destined to develop into a country-wide awakening on the subject involved. And that subject is destitute or indigent mothers. Mrs. Lee's thoughts have been running in this channel until she has evolved a plan to do away with destitute mothers—not the mothers, but the destitution. She has made a study of the subject and found multitudes of mothers in all degrees of destitution, and unable to fulfill the sacred duties of motherhood toward their children, and has enlisted practically all Los Angeles in a scheme to raise funds for the relief of such cases of destitution. The mayor has issued a proclamation setting apart the second Sunday in May as "Mother's Day," and business men have taken up the cause with the greatest enthusiasm, in a way to get practical results. The governor has been appealed to and will no doubt issue a proclamation to the state at large on the subject.

It is hard to fully realize the importance of the question involved in this movement. The most of our criminals come from neglected children who are thus left to get their first impressions from the gamins on the streets or in the back alleys, who have themselves grown up under like surroundings, and many of whom are old in crime before they are ten years of age. Not only so, but many neglected children by their association with ignorant and vicious adults become inured to debauchery and brutality. In such schools as these are thousands now growing up to manhood and womanhood, and will soon become factors in our civilization. The schooling they get will be taken with them wherever they go, and bear its fruit of social and political corruption.

Even the most favored of such children must go without the full measure of a mother's care, which means that the better side of their natures will lack the necessary training for its full development. Kind friends may do the best they can for the unfortunate child but they cannot supply the place of the mother. Society is today paying the penalty for its past neglect along the lines suggested by Mrs. Lee and no investment would pay as well as money and effort intelligently devoted to so caring for indigent mothers as to enable them to care for their children.

"There should be no such thing in all the world as a destitute mother," said Mrs. Lee. And so say we all. "All the world loves a mother," and the sentiment is strongest in the hearts of the bravest and best. If there is a creature in human shape that is not moved at the thought, he isn't worth a hoot.

Let it be brought to mind that "the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world" and we will begin to appreciate the importance of the mothers of our race. But if that hand must by its necessities be too busy at something else to perform that office, who then shall rule? It will be any evil influence that chances to come along to take her place, and metaphorically speaking "rock the cradle" and thus "rule the world."

Let us all boost Mrs. Lee's move-

THE ANARCHIST SITUATION

The dispatches contain the information that our government is contemplating the banishment of the notorious anarchist, Emma Goldman. This calls to mind a question that is going to become more important as the years go by, and that is, what are we to do with this kind of cattle?

It might be well to take a glance at their doctrines so as not to forget what kind of people we have to deal with. Their international congress held in London in 1881 set forth its work by an address and nothing has been changed in it to date. Among other things they say: "The committees of a country are to keep up with one another and with the general committee regular communication, and have to collect money for the purchase of poisons and weapons, as well as to find places suitable for laying mines and so on. To attain the proposed end—the annihilation of all rulers, nobility, the clergy, the most prominent capitalists and other exploiters—any means are permissible, and therefore great attention should be given to the study of chemistry and the preparation of explosives as being the most important weapons."

Of course the normal mind is shocked at the purposes of the organization as well as the means designated for carrying them out. Indeed one danger in the situation lies in the fact that it is almost impossible to take such teachings in earnest, and we are going to be slow to realize the gravity of the situation. And though they already have enough crimes to their discredit even in this country to brand the whole outfit as a band of murderers, still we are doing practically nothing about it. After McKinley's assassination we awoke from our slumbers for a while and passed a few repressive measures, but not of the right kind. The trouble is we do not understand the cult and many of our best men will have to be sacrificed before we do.

The anarchist is a product of the conditions and peculiarities of the peoples of continental Europe. Ages of oppression have done their work. Unlike the Chinese, the people are too docile to be crushed into abject submission, and with the exception of the German and Frenchman, they have not the intelligence to relieve themselves from the iron hand. They have held secret resentment against their oppressors until it has become a second nature and given birth to a new creature in the shape of an enemy to civilized society. And this, mind you, extends to all countries and all society under the sun. The nihilists confine their operations to Russia, where nihilism originated, but when any of them, such as this Goldman woman, come to this country, they include our institutions in the list to be destroyed. To destroy all government is their controlling principle, and "any means," they say, "is permissible."

The original American with all his ingenuity never could have developed such a theory as that, and it is to him an unthinkable thing. In fact it is not a thought—it is an impulse, and such an impulse as never could be born except under the conditions and among the people who brought it forth. And, once born, the brat does not discriminate between good government and bad, his only object in life being to destroy them both.

INDIFFERENCE IS FATAL

When referring to the late local option election in Indiana, the Register took occasion to call attention to the fact that certain "dry" towns went "wet" and certain "wet" towns went "dry," and suggested some reasons why such was the case. Among these was that "dry" towns did not have the opportunities to fully realize the true character and disposition of the liquor traffic as "wet" towns.

Where the liquor interests gain control they make life miserable for decent people, and when conditions become unbearable the people rise up and thrust them out; but where the people lack experience with them, a spirit of toleration or indifference frequently paves the way for them to come in and set up their traffic.

And now it appears that this same rule has been at work in Wisconsin, where a local option election has just been held. In this election the liquor forces gained some advantages, a special case being the carrying of the town of Barron, which had been "dry" for some time; "but on the other hand," say the dispatches, "they lost decisively in Sturgeon Bay, which had been 'wet' since time immemorial, and where it was believed the lake and canal interests with their marine employees, would hold the saloons."

The Register again calls attention to these cases for the reason that they are instructive from a Santa Ana standpoint, and because the same mental processes as induce eastern "dry" towns to vote "wet" could as well take place in the West as in the East. Our long immunity from saloons is liable to breed overconfidence in some and indifference in others, and thus allow an active and vigilant enemy to force its way in, after years of banishment.

THE DECEITFULNESS OF GREAT RICHES

The newspapers absolutely teem with accounts of millionaire divorces and wealthy suicides. Especially of late here in Southern California have we had conspicuous examples of domestic infidelity and despondency among those of great wealth and high social position.

All of which goes to illustrate the well-known but little heeded fact that money and the luxurious surroundings it can procure do not bring happiness, nor even domestic peace. On the contrary they often cause distress of mind and separate those who, in poverty would dwell together in peace and love.

Overmuch wealth is usually a weight to drag us down, especially when suddenly acquired. Instead of being an object of longing, it should be regarded rather with dread. "Give me neither poverty nor riches," was the prayer of the Arab who was wise enough to understand "the deceitfulness of riches." If a census covering the point could be taken, it would reveal the fact that there are more troubled hearts under broadcloth than jeans. That there is less harmony in the palaces of the rich than the hovels of the poor, and that the lightest hearted is the one who works for a frugal living and eats his bread "in the sweat of his face."

Now that it has been officially determined that Esmeralda, Nevada, was the banner Bryan town in the United States at the last election, and is entitled to that mule offered by Bryan as a prize, it has been suggested that it be forwarded to the committee on invitations of the National Democratic club.

and in age from a tiny, three-weeks-old baby to the frisky six-year-old tots, there were ten or a dozen mothers. While the youngsters were amused with children's games, a sort of a mothers' conference was held as the older ones watched the amusing pranks of the little ones.

"There must be a new gem in my crown,"

Said the Almighty One above,
So He sent His angel bearers down,
And the key that he gave them was Love.

That key unlocked the door of your

And, entering there, they saw
That no longer on earth need they

There was the gem without a flaw.

THINNING AT LOS ALAMITOS

Farmers About Sugar Beet
Town Happy Over Prospects—8000 Acres

LOS ALAMITOS, April 13.—Eight thousand acres of beets, 6000 acres up now and ready for thinning, is what perfect weather conditions this winter have brought to the farmers within a radius of seven miles from the sugar factory here.

With an assured price for the season, the growers are looking forward to a big harvest and correspondingly fat pocketbooks.

In the east some factories have over 2000 contractors, with only small fields. Of the 137 contractors raising beets for this factory, seven have fields of 100 acres, and thirty have from 110 to 250 acres in beets.

The field industry is proceeding very rapidly. On the whole, conditions are most favorable, and any one seeking work can get it, as there is plenty of thinning and hoeing to be done at an advanced wage scale over previous years.

A detachment of Hindus has recently arrived in the peatlands from British Columbia. The men seek employment by the day only at a low wage rate, working steadily at their own gait, any attempt to hurry them being without avail. They attend strictly to their own affairs, supplying their own provisions, and may provide a solution of the labor problem in the beet and celery fields.

By the end of this month the planting will all be over, and an early start of beet slicing is anticipated. As a general proposition the farmers are forehanded with their work—much farther advanced than at the same time last year, notwithstanding the delays on account of excessively heavy rains.

The factory is now receiving fuel oil at the rate of 500 barrels per month as part of the fuel supply for the coming sugar campaign.

In and about the factory repairs are being pushed, and considerable new machinery is being installed.

GOOD PROFITS IN CABBAGES

Growers This Year Are Getting
$35 Per Ton Where Last
Year They Got $5 and $6

FULLERTON, April 13.—For the week ending last night sixteen carloads of cabbages were shipped from this district. The California Vegetable Union sending out nine from Fullerton, three from Anaheim and two from Brookhurst. The Cobb house shipped two cars from Fullerton. The first shipments moved at $40 and $45 per ton but the price fixed for this week is $35. A month ago the output from the local district was estimated at 300 carloads but growers now say it will not be over 250 cars, as the crop is running lighter than was expected. Even at $35 a ton there is a good profit for the growers who, a year ago, received only $5 and $6 a ton. Nearly all the local crop is going to Pacific Coast points, only a few cars having been shipped east.

Depot Addition

A year or two ago the Santa Fe erected a forty-foot addition to the freight department at the local depot but as shipments are increasing here every month Agent Rhodes asked for another extension and the company now has the material ready to build another forty-foot addition on the east end of the freight depot. The business office will also be made ten feet longer. This and other changes will make the depot one of the most complete in Southern California.

A. S. Bradford has received news that his son Percy successfully underwent an operation on his eyes at Chicago. The young man is taking a course in electrical engineering at the Armour Institute in that city.

Frank McDermont, wife and son will arrive this week after a year's stay at Toronto, Canada, where Mr. McDermont attended a veterinary college.

H. W. Krug and family, who sold their walnut grove here, are now stopping in Los Angeles, but will probably buy ranch property near Fullerton or Anaheim soon.

William McGimpsey has gone to Murietta Hot Springs for the benefit of his health.

Oranges Go Out

For the week ending last night oranges were shipped from Fullerton as follows in carloads: Placentia association, 13; C. C. Chapman, 8; Citrus Union, 9; H. F. Dalrymple, 8; Benchley Fruit Company, 4; Thomas Strain, Jr., 4.

The Fullerton Oil Company received a carload of cashing yesterday to be used on its development work here.

The Olinda Crude Oil Company has finished a new oil well which, it is said, will be a good producer.

Petition for Recall of Two Superintendents Before City Trustees Monday

At the meeting of the city trustees Monday night the petition asking for the rescinding of the appointment of the water works superintendent on the ground that he is not a citizen, and of the street superintendent on the ground that the job doesn't need him was read and instantly denied.

The city has a lot of worn out and useless water meters. Of 100 meters bought a year ago, fifteen are worthless. The city will ask for an adjustment.

Mrs. W. W. Pratt was granted permission to remove alternate walnut trees on her property.

A map of a portion of block 9, presented by S. M. Craddock, was referred to the city attorney.

The city's lighting contract is before the fire and water committee on consideration of renewal.

On the report of William Muffleman, the city attorney was instructed to write to the Santa Fe in regard to the closing of a road along the tracks from Chapman to Collins.

The city attorney is to begin steps forcing down strips of sidewalk where owners have neglected notices already given.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The strawberry season is on in full swing. The cars on the electric lines are bringing in large quantities, and prices have gone down to about the summer-month level. Yesterday morning some of the berries sold at 1.00 a crate, a little more than 3 cents a basket. The average price was 5 cents a basket, with a range of 1 cent on either side. Gardena, Moneta, Glendale and Tropico berries have been on the market a week. They are of two varieties, the Lady Thompson and the Klondike, the latter being the more plentiful of the two. The first Irwindale shipment of size to arrive here was sent in yesterday. The berries were the most choice of any on the market and sold at 6 cents a basket. Raspberries are still scarce and the price on them is held up to 20 cents. Cranberries are about cleaned up and probably the last of them will be used up this week. The last barrel of Spanish Malaga grapes was sold yesterday at 14.00 and the grape season closed at the latest date ever known in Los Angeles.

CHURCH MEN IN SESSION

Twenty-five Delegates Here
Attending Conference of
U. P. Church

Automobile Ride for Visitors—
Interesting Talks Tonight
By Fine Speakers

The Los Angeles United Presbyterian, comprising the Southern California district, began its sessions at the United Presbyterian church in this city yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will continue them through a closing session at the church this evening. The deliberations of the presbytery delegates, twenty-five in number, are in charge of Rev. J. C. Cole of Riverside, who was elected moderator immediately after the seating of the delegates yesterday afternoon.

Following the election of moderator the first devotional service of the conference was led by Rev. H. W. Crabbe, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church of Los Angeles. The subject was a fitting one for the opening service, "The Holy Spirit's Guidance in the Deliberations and Decisions of Ecclesiastical Bodies."

The opening sermon of the conference was preached last night by Rev. Cole. His subject was, "I Am Doing a Great Work and Cannot Come Down," a remark made by Nehemiah to Sanballot, and his theme dealt principally with temptations that tend to draw people away from the work of the Lord.

Devotional services at 9 o'clock this morning were led by Mr. Westerfield of Riverside. Following it came presbyterian business of a routine nature. A discussion of departmental work followed with Rev. S. J. Shaw presiding. The secretaries reported as follows: Finance, J. H. Young, Pasadena; home missions, Rev. E. S. McKittrick; Sabbath schools, Rev. John M. Ross, Highland Park; young people's work, Rev. H. P. Espy, Beaumont.

This afternoon the principal business will be the election of commissioners to the assembly.

At 4 o'clock the visitors will be taken on an automobile ride that will include Tustin, Hewes Hill and Orange.

Tonight's session will be an interesting one. Five United Presbyterian ministers are to give talks, each twenty minutes in length. The subjects and speakers will be:

"Conference on Evangelism," Rev. T. J. C. Webster, presiding; "Prayer and Evangelism," Rev. S. J. Shaw, of San Diego; "Praise and Evangelism," Rev. W. W. Logan, of Los Angeles; "Preaching and Evangelism," Rev. M. M. Kilpatrick, of Pasadena; "Personal Work and Evangelism," Rev. John M. Ross, of Highland Park.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour

REAL ESTATE MAN BUMPS HOUSEMOVER

Though Coming Together at a Low Rate of Speed, Some Damage Was Done

T. P. March, the real estate man, and F. F. Thorpe, the housemover, came together a la automobile, this morning at the corner of Sycamore and Main streets. Thorpe was turning south of Main onto Sycamore, and Marsh was headed toward Main. Marsh thought Thorpe would circle around him. Thorpe thought Marsh would keep on the left side of the street where he then was. Neither thought developed into realization in accordance with the thought. Thorpe didn't circle and Marsh didn't keep on the side of the street he was on.

The automobiles came together, and both machines were more or less injured thereby. Neither sustained injuries that amount to much. Neither was going over four or five miles an hour and the bump was almost gentle. Neither driver was unseated.

Guilty to Disturbance

Ninety days in jail for disturbing the peace was the sentence given this morning by Justice of the Peace Ford of Fullerton to each of the six men who have been arrested for having participated in the drunken row that ended in the murder of Manuel Olivas and Sotero Miranda. Charges of disturbing the peace were brought against the men in order to hold them in jail. The sentence seems to have been given for the same purpose. In the meantime every effort is being made to tie the guilt to some one of the six men, whose names are Frank Silvas, M. Chavez, Refugio Fernandez, Fernando Garcia, Manuel Madril and Philemano Bustillo.

These men and the men and women of the Mexican camp where the killing occurred have been questioned closely, but as yet the developments have been very meager.

This morning Sheriff Lacy drove a three-seater to Fullerton, taking five of the prisoners, and Constable Smithwick carried the sixth man over.

District Attorney Davis appeared against them. They all pleaded guilty to the charge of peace disturbing. The officers are satisfied that among the six men in jail is the man or men who murdered Olivas and Miranda.
